

Joint Resolution To Designate The Weeks Of April 14 Through 21, 1991, And May 3 Through 10, 1992, As

There are other types of major development but these are unlikely to arise in Ilalngton. Major Development is defined in the Town and Country Planning (General Development Procedure) Order 1995

The council now charges for pre-application meeting on major development. This includes the;

- provision of 10 or more flats or houses, and
- provision of over 1,000 square meters of floorspace

In addition to the above, the following developments will be subject charges for pre-application meetings:

- proposals for development requiring an Environmental Impact Assessment (generally larger development or those in sensitive areas and likely to impact on the environment);
- proposals involving complex listed building or conservation issues
- telecommunications proposals for composite proposals for 10 or more sites

3.4 knowing you've been listened to

If you comment on a plan or on a planning application the council will let you know what has happened as a result. Anyone who makes a comment on a draft plan will receive more information as the plan is being developed. You will be told about further chances to make comments and we hope that you will be happy with the results. If you are not, you can make comments to the planning inspector when our final version of the plan is sent for an examination if it is a Development Plan Document – see Figure One. You will be informed about how and when to do this at the time.

The council will also publish on its website a summary of all of the comments received on a plan and a statement of how the council has responded to the comments.

If you have made comments on a planning application the council will write to you and let you to give you more information. In some cases you may be able to speak at a planning committee. More details are in our booklet Consultations on Planning Applications (reproduced at appendix five).
